

Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee advises the Senior Minister and the Executive Board on all human relations matters. It develops job descriptions, actively seeks to fill vacant or new positions, establishes compensation policies, negotiates contracts and benefits plans, and maintains a personnel procedures manual. The committee also supports staff members through training programs, growth-focused performance evaluations, compassionate counseling and serves as ombudsman when needed.